

Sixth Form Dress Code

Starting September 2017

The Sixth Form dress code is designed to encourage a more business like environment and to instil standards and responsibility. Sixth Form dress should be fit for the purpose of study.

Dress Code

- Plain black, navy, grey smart skirt/dress (just above the knee or longer) or trousers (no denim, jeans style or canvas)
- Formal shirt/blouse
- Formal shoes (no trainers, canvas or leisure shoes)

Optional

- Tie
- Smart jumper or cardigan
- Suit style jacket (black, navy, grey)
- Outdoor coats (no denim, leather or 'hoodie' style)

This sensible, smart code is for all students to follow. We expect students to use their common sense when selecting clothes to wear to Sixth Form. Students who do not conform will be sent home to change.

Sixth Form Dress Code

Starting September 2017

The Sixth Form dress code is designed to encourage a more business like environment and to instil standards and responsibility. Sixth Form dress should be fit for the purpose of study.

Dress Code

- Plain black, navy, grey smart skirt/dress (just above the knee or longer) or trousers (no denim, jeans style or canvas)
- Formal shirt/blouse
- Formal shoes (no trainers, canvas or leisure shoes)

Optional

- Tie
- Smart jumper or cardigan
- Suit style jacket (black, navy, grey)
- Outdoor coats (no denim, leather or 'hoodie' style)

This sensible, smart code is for all students to follow. We expect students to use their common sense when selecting clothes to wear to Sixth Form. Students who do not conform will be sent home to change.